Dear [Name of Recipient]:

The date has finally arrived – we moved into our lovely new home today, and amid all the excitement and activity, I wanted to take a few minutes to write and thank you for your help and cooperation in these last hectic weeks. I am sure the whole process of tying all those loose ends would have been much more time-consuming and difficult without your rapid response to our numerous calls whenever we needed information.

Thank you also for your suggestion that we call you once we have settled in, if we have questions that may come up about the neighborhood parks, best places to shop, etc. We will certainly take you up on this if there is a need; we have also been offered help by the next-door neighbors, who dropped by to greet us when they saw us unloading our truck.

We ‘re already enjoying the house, even with all the boxes still unpacked -- and look forward to becoming part of this lively community.

Thank you again for making the whole experience of buying our new home go so smoothly.

Sincerely,
